

- Fossils of the plant Glossopteris were found across the Southern continents
- Glacial deposits were found in tropical areas
- Modern continents have a “jig-saw puzzle” appearance as if they could fit together in many instances

These facts most closely correlate to which of the following Scientific Theories?

- A) Seafloor Spreading as proposed by Harry Hess
- B) Continental Drift as proposed by Alfred Wegener
- C) Plate Tectonics as proposed by John Nash
- D) General Relativity as proposed by Albert Einstein